

PEAK Kid's Camp at Ponderosa Camper Packing List

What to bring to PEAK Kid's Camp at Ponderosa
(Do NOT bring anything you are not willing to lose to theft – it happens!)

- Good backpack or duffel bag for all camper's gear (you will get a little string backpack bag for carrying around very light things during camp)
- Sleeping bag, pillow w/ case (bunk-beds, sheets may not fit the unique mattresses which are very thick)
- Soap, shampoo, toothbrush & toothpaste, deodorant (older kids please wear deodorant)
- (2) towels – one beach size (for water slide), washcloth
- Sunscreen (the higher the better! SPF 30+)
- Water bottle (labeled w/kid's full name) No camelback styles (will be stolen!)
- Ball cap or another form of sun blocking hat (with a brim, covering) & sunglasses
- Casual clothing for 4 days, 3 nights (shorts, jeans, include tasteful, body covering pajamas – no sayings on them, i.e. "hotty", "juicy", VS – "pink", etc.
- Light, but significant, jacket (wind and water make kids cold!) Also it gets cold every night!)
- Flashlight w/ fresh batteries
- Full bible, pen & notebook
- Spending $35 - $50, Snack Shack & Gift Shop are awesome! T-shirts, hats, hoodies, stuffed animals, Icee drinks, sodas, ice cream. It is the main "hang out" during free time – good deals!

- Disposable camera (no real digital cameras – will be stolen)
- Good “hoodie” for cool evenings – Gift Shop sells them for $25
- Good hiking shoes, athletic sandals, tennis shoes
